

ALEXANDER KAGERER

DEVELOPER

ABOUT ME

As a former cocktail bartender in London I developed skills in team management, crafted inventive drinks, and curated menus, all while engaging with a diverse range of fascinating individuals. Intrigued by technology, I explored HTML and CSS in 2013 for the first time. Driven by genuine passion, I took the decisive step to formally learn how to program, aspiring to seamlessly merge my creative instincts with technical proficiency for innovative solutions.
